

Community News & Events

Ritenour card shower

A card shower is planned for Julia Ritenour, who will celebrate her 85th birthday on July 27. Cards can be sent to 342 E. Queen St., Strasburg 22657.

Hopewell Baptist

Hopewell Baptist Church in Sperryville will hold revival services at 7 p.m. Wednesday through Friday.

Guest speakers are the Rev. David Clanigan on Wednesday, the Rev. Herbert Johnson on Thursday and the Rev. Cleo Frye on Friday.

The church will also celebrate homecoming on Sunday with the Rev. Ronald Johnson preaching at the 11 a.m. worship service and the Rev. Nathaniel Butler at the 3 p.m. service. Lunch will follow the morning service.

Chicken barbecue

The Woodstock United Methodist Church Men will sell barbecue chicken starting at 8:30 a.m. Saturday at Tractor Supply in Woodstock to benefit the church's vacation Bible school program.

4-H camp

The Culpeper-Shenandoah-Rappahannock 4-H camp will be held Sunday through Thursday at the Northern Virginia 4-H Educational Center in Front Royal. Information: 459-6140.

Ice cream social

The Fort Valley Museum will hold an old-fashioned ice cream social from 2-5 p.m. Sunday at the Museum's Old Brick Church and Trinity Church.

There will be six flavors of ice cream, a bake sale, artisan exhibits, hamburgers, hot dogs and music by the Charlotte and Charley Smith Duet. The museum's newest exhibit on Fort Valley's iron furnaces will also be open. Information: 933-6690 or www.fortvalleymuseum.org.

Events submissions

Send in your events to events@nvdaily.com and your news to news@nvdaily.com.