

Edinburg Personals DR

EDINBURG, March 23—Miss Betty Clem and Miss Jeanetta Quesenberry, students at Madison College, were recent guests of Miss Clem's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Clem, over the weekend.

Miss Louise Maus, who has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George V. Maus, since last Wednesday, has returned to Madison College to resume her studies. Miss Maus, accompanied by her father and sister, spent Thursday and Friday in Richmond.

Jack Hutcheson, of Baltimore, Md., spent the weekend with Pete Clem at his cabin on the Shenandoah River.

Mrs. Robert Jones and daughter Janet, of Washington, are spending the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Lantz. Mr. Jones and Mrs. Hilda Flanagan, were also guests in the Lantz home.

Samuel Rush is ill at his home here.

H. E. Wiseman, of Edinburg is on a business trip to Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Luella Clem, of Washington, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Swann.

Mrs. Ray Long and baby are patients in Cora Miller Memorial Hospital in Woodstock.

Miss Ernestine Coffman and Miss Betty Johnson, of Madison College, spent the weekend with Miss Coffman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Coffman.

Mrs. Adrian Carter and son, Gary of Baltimore, are spending this week here with relatives and friends.

Mar 24 1942
Salvador, Central American republic, is about one-fifth the size of the state of Indiana, but it has a population almost one-half as great.