

Community News & Events

4-H workshop

The Shenandoah County 4-H and FFA will hold a cattle hoof trimming workshop from 7 to 11 a.m. Saturday. Appointments: Daryl Bowman at 459-8255.

Bowman Library

Bowman Library in Stephens City will be accepting donations of books, CDs and DVDs from 9 a.m. to noon Saturday.

Information: Barbara Dickinson at 540-662-6046, ext. 31 or friends@handleylegional.org.

Adopt-a-Pet

The Humane Society of Warren County, along with Coldwell Banker Real Estate and Adopt-A-Pet, will host "Homes for Dogs" national pet adoption weekend from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Warren County Animal Shelter, 1245 Progress Drive, Front Royal.

The program is part of a nationwide effort by Coldwell Banker to find homes for 20,000 dogs this year.

Kooky Chefs

Samuels Public Library in Front Royal will host Kooky Chefs cook desserts at 11 a.m. Saturday.

Youth ages 7 and older will try a variety of cupcakes and discover ways to make them beautiful. Information: 540-635-3153.

Family picnic/movie

Bowman Library in Stephens City will show the movie "Aristocats" from 1 to 2:30 p.m. Saturday as part of its monthly family picnic and movie program.

Those attending are encouraged to bring lunch and a blanket. Popcorn and lemonade will be provided. Information: Donna Hughes, 540-869-9000, ext. 215 or dhughes@handleylegional.org.

College planning workshop

College and career coach Felice Rollins will lead a college planning workshop at 2 p.m. Saturday at Samuels Public Library in Front Royal.

The workshop is for teens and parents to help them develop a month-to-month plan to make getting in and paying for college headache-free.

Information: 540-635-3153.

Gospel program

The Discipleship Community Church will sponsor "Proclaim Front Royal!" from 2 to 8 p.m. Saturday at the Gazebo in the Village Commons.

Activities include live music, preaching, food, games, prizes and crafts. Information: www.dcc-frontroyal.org.

Benefit concert

Third Day will perform at a benefit concert for homelessness and hunger and to honor our service men and women at 7 p.m. Saturday at the Shenandoah County Fairgrounds in Woodstock.

Donations of non-perishable food items and gently-used household items will be collected at the gate.

Gallery talks

National Park Service Ranger Shannon Moeck from Cedar Creek and Belle Grove Historical National Park will explore and interpret Mort Künstler's paintings of local Civil War scenes from 11 a.m. to noon and 2 to 3 p.m. Wednesday at the Museum of the Shenandoah Valley, 901 Amherst St., Winchester.

Admission is free. Information: 540-662-1473 or www.themsv.org.

Lawn party

St. Jacob's Lutheran Church will host a lawn party starting at 4 p.m. Saturday at 15226 Senedo Road, Edinburg.

The menu includes hamburgers, hot dogs, ham sandwiches, beans, coleslaw and homemade cake and ice cream.

A free-will offering will benefit Meals on Wheels and Shenandoah Alliance for Shelter.

Golf tournament

A golf tournament to benefit North Warren Volunteer Fire & Rescue Company 10 will be held from 1 to 7 p.m. Saturday at Blue Ridge Shadows Golf Course, Front Royal.

Information: 540-635-6759.

Family health service day

The Shenandoah Community Health Clinic is hosting a family health service day from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday at 124 Valley Vista Drive, Woodstock.

Services include $10 sports physicals, free dental checks for youth and affordable health care services and Medicaid enrollment information. Information: 459-1700.

Events submissions

Send in your events to events@nvdaily.com and your news to news@nvdaily.com.

Valley
Ear, Nose