

SOMETHING OLD

This photograph from the early 1920s shows a Mount Jackson gas station which was owned by Burgess E. Nelson, a former state senator. The gas station was located across US 11 from the Confederate cemetery. Nelson's home was on the other side of the station. This photograph was loaned to the Valley-Herald by Warren Good Jr. of Mount Jackson. If you have an old photograph you would like to share with our readers, please bring it to the office at 207 N. Main St. across from the main branch of First Virginia Bank or mail it P.O. Box 507, Woodstock VA 22664. You may pick up your photograph once it has appeared in the paper.
