

Community News & Events

Museum schedule

The following volunteers are scheduled at the Strasburg Museum Sunday through Saturday:

- Sunday: morning, Margo and Lynn; afternoon, Donna Bollhoefer.
- Monday: morning, Betty Carey and Sarah Bagnell; afternoon, Amanda Leonard and Wyatt.
- Tuesday: Ibbly Stratton.
- Wednesday: morning, Wayne Ireson and Bob Calihan; afternoon, Sue Foster.
- Thursday: morning, Glenna Loving; afternoon, Faith Utz.
- Friday: morning, Gloria Stickley; afternoon, June Hockman.
- Saturday: morning, Sue Foster; afternoon, Tim Taylor.

Drop-in stories

Handley Regional Library will host Drop-In Stories with Susan Pannell and her dog, Sesame, from 11 to 11:30 a.m. each Monday through Sept. 28 for all ages.

Story times

Samuels Library in Front Royal will hold the following story times:

- Tuesdays: 11 a.m., Time for Baby for children up to 2 years old; 3:30 p.m., Big Kids story time for children in kindergarten and up.
- Wednesdays and Thursdays: 10:15 a.m., story time for toddlers; 11 a.m., preschool story time. Information: 540-635-3153.

Teen grief program

Blue Ridge Hospice will offer "Forget-Me-Not Days for Teens" from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday at 333 W. Cork St., Winchester.

This two-session minicamp for grieving teens ages 13 to 17 will employ music, remembrance crafts and grief education in a supportive and playful environment. Registration, information: 540-313-9200.

Rotary Club

Kelly Bober, executive director of the Child Safe Center in Winchester, will be the speaker at the meeting of the Rotary Club of Frederick County at 7:30 a.m. Tuesday at Shenandoah Valley Westminster-Canterbury.

Members will also hear about the Native American Festival. Information: Geraldine Kiefer, 540-742-2260 or gkiefer@su.edu.

Stand Against Crime

The Winchester Police Department will hold a National Night Out event, which promotes neighborhood and police community partnership for a safer city, from 6 to 9 p.m. Tuesday in front of the Old Courthouse Museum on the Loudoun Street Mall.

The event will include the bluegrass band Five of a Kind, activities for kids, free hotdogs, chips, sodas, appearances by McGruff, and informational booths. Those attending are encouraged to bring folding chairs.

National Night Out

Strasburg will host National Night Out, a nation-wide program that promotes neighborhood and police community partnership for a safer community, from 6 to 9 p.m. Tuesday on the lot behind the fire department off Washington Street.

Activities include live entertainment by Robbie Limon, a bike rodeo, children's activities, car seat checks, door prize giveaways and food. Information: www.strasburgva.com.

Book club

The Long Branch Book Club will meet at 7 p.m. Tuesday at the historic home in Boyce. The book for August will be "Property" by Valerie Martin.

Those attending are encouraged to bring dinner or a snack. Information: 540-837-1856 or www.visitlongbranch.org.

4-H Shooting Club

The Seven Bends 4-H Shooting Education Club will meet at 7 p.m. Tuesday at Round Hill Church of the Brethren in Toms Brook. Information: 459-6140.

School meals

Shenandoah County Public Schools has announced its policy for providing free or reduced-price meals for children as part of the National School Lunch and/or School Breakfast programs.

Household size and income will be used to determine eligibility for free or reduced-price meal benefits. The program ben-

- Children who are members of households receiving Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits (formerly the Food Stamp Program) or who receive Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF).

- Children who are homeless, migrant or runaway.
- Foster children, who are the legal responsibility of a welfare agency or court.
- Children who are members of households participating in WIC.

Application forms along with income guidelines and information about the program are being distributed to all households. Applications are also available at the principal's office in each school.

Further information is available at the School Board office at 600 N. Main St., Suite 200, Woodstock or by calling 459-6222.

Events submissions

Send in your events to events@nvdaily.com and your news to news@nvdaily.com.