

Grocery magazine features local woman

Wanda Marshburn, a Woodstock native and Food Lion director of operations in the Tidewater region, has been named to the 2012 Top Women in Grocery List in Progressive Grocer magazine.

Progressive Grocer is a trade publication for the retail food industry.

Marshburn oversees the supermarket operations of 85 stores and more than 3,000 employees in Hampton Roads, Virginia Beach, Norfolk and Chesapeake. She joined Food Lion in 1986.

Marshburn was included in the "Rising Star" category and was recognized during a celebration in Chicago in November.

As an operations director she led her stores' efforts last year to connect with military families associated with the Norfolk Naval Base and oversaw special

"welcome home" events for returning military personnel and their families.

Masterworks Chorus to offer auditions

Auditions for the Masterworks Chorus of the Shenandoah Valley will be held Monday at 6:30 p.m. at the Emanuel Lutheran Church in Woodstock.

Conductor Betty Karol Wilson says sopranos and basses are especially encouraged to audition.

The chorus soon will begin rehearsing for its March 2 and March 3 concerts that will feature the Faure Requiem and the Rutter Requiem.
